AFFINITY BANK OF PENNSYLVANIA
Receives Top 50 Award

Wyomissing, PA – Affinity Bank of Pennsylvania announced that it has been recognized by the Greater Reading Chamber of Commerce & Industry as one of the top 50 companies in Berks County based on increased revenue growth. The annual award recognizes local companies that have shown the greatest increase in revenue growth from the prior year. Affinity Bank was ranked 27th and was one of only two banks recognized by the Chamber.

“We are pleased to be recognized by the Greater Reading Chamber of Commerce with their Top 50 Award,” said Steven A. Ehrlich, Chairman, President and CEO of Affinity Bank of Pennsylvania. “It is particularly pleasing to receive this award during this time when businesses are facing significant economic challenges.”

Affinity Bank of Pennsylvania, which opened for business in April 2003, has $155.0 million in assets and is headquartered in Wyomissing, PA. The Bank operates four full-service banking offices in Wyomissing, Reading, Sinking Spring and Muhlenberg and will be opening its fifth office in the new Exeter Commons Shopping Center in September of this year.
